2 Supervision plan and agreements

A very important part of the supervision agreement is the alignment of expectations: how you want to frame the future cooperation.

Early in the process, sit down together and be sure to talk about the practicalities (for example communication, meeting frequency, other obligations, need for deadlines) as well as topics closer to the actual projects (for example types of supervisor input, reading and feedback). For inspiration, you can find a non-exhaustive inspiration list of topics that could be included in the agreement on ITU Student.

Use the table below to note your alignment of expectations in as many details as you find necessary. Do not include confidential information in the written part of the agreement.

Finally, add a mark for agreement from both student(s) and supervisor. Please remember that the agreement is an opportunity to frame the supervision process. It is not a contract and you can discuss and amend the content at any time.
